SFU HARVEST BOX Program

The SFU Harvest Box is a program for SFU community members to get fresh fruits and vegetables delivered to campus once a month. If you'd like to order but do not wish to pay online at www.sfulocalfood.ca, please follow these steps:

1. Ensure the month you are ordering is not sold out in advance by visiting our website or calling us at 778.782.8763.

2. Choose which Harvest Box you would like to order

• Local Organic Harvest Box – $15.75

- All local, seasonal, organic produce!
- Support local growers and sustainable agricultural methods
- Farm profiles featured in each newsletter – - meet your maker!
- Helps to support your community and keep both boxes going!

Includes seven or more different varieties of local, seasonal and organic produce (45 – 50 servings) and a newsletter featuring info on local food, tasty recipes and information about the farms that grow your goods!

Distribution is on the 2nd Thursday of the month.

• Value Harvest Box - $8.50

- Focus is on value and making eating fruit and veggies more affordable and accessible
- Ideal for students and folks on a budget
- Conventional (non-organic) produce sourced as locally as possible, but imported stuff when it's a good deal
- Helps people save money!

Includes seven or more different varieties of produce (45 – 50 servings) and a newsletter featuring info on local food and recipes to prepare your produce.

Distribution is on the last Thursday of the month.

- Summer Semester Harvest Box – Order for the whole summer semester all at once! Both the Local Organic and Value Boxes are available. Pick up May, June, July, August 2010.

3. Fill out the form below and submit payment:

- In person: at our office, WMX 2621, in the Centre for Sustainable Community Development (located past the French department on the 2nd floor of the WMX, SFU Burnaby campus) OR
- By mail (cheque only):
